RE: Election Observer Panel

DATE: May 27, 2010

The Consolidated Statewide Primary Election will be held June 8, 2010.

The Sutter County Clerk-Recorder invites representatives from the qualified political parties, Sutter County Grand Jury, and other groups or individuals who have expressed an interest in observing Election Day activities to comprise the Election Observer Panel for the Primary Election.

Representatives on the panel will be given the opportunity to observe that correct procedures are followed in the receiving, processing and tallying of all votes cast in the Primary Election as well as observing Election Day activities at the polls. In addition, any member of the panel is invited to be present during vote by mail ballot processing, counting and the activities associated with the certification of the election.

Should either you or a representative from your organization wish to participate in any or all of these activities, or have any questions, please contact Chris Goforth at 530-822-7122.
