V. Appointment Letters – panelists visiting polling places (for introduction to precinct workers)

If a member of the group is interested in visiting a polling place arrangements are made by notifying our precinct workers. A letter of introduction (see sample attached) is also prepared for the panelist to use when visiting polling places on Election Day. Materials will be prepared for each panelist that will include a listing of all polling places within the county for that specific election as well as the central counting site location and hours of operation.

SAMPLE LETTER OF INVITATION

Dear Election Observer:

April 29, 2008

As I have done every Election since becoming the Placer County Clerk-Recorder-Registrar of Voters, I would like to invite all interested voters to observe Election Day proceedings for the June 3, 2008 Statewide Direct Primary Election.

The Elections Division welcomes interested voters to our office on or before Election Day to observe my staff process voted vote by mail ballots and perform other election activities. However, it is suggested that you call ahead to make sure election activities are being performed when you wish to stop by.

It is the goal of the Placer County Elections Division to have our election as transparent as possible. We invite you to observe any election processes, which may include a visit to one or more polling places, and then a visit to the ballot counting center to observe tabulation of the ballots on Election Night.

On Election Night, observer panel activities will begin at 7:30 PM Election Night at the Elections Division located at 2956 Richardson Drive, Auburn, in the Dewitt Center. I will give a 30-minute presentation on the process used to verify and count voted vote by mail ballots. The presentation will give you an opportunity to ask questions and showcase the procedures we follow in accordance with state law. Attendance and participation are not mandatory and you are welcome to attend anytime during the evening. I believe those who have participated in the past have come away with a greater understanding and knowledge of the election process.

At 8:00 PM, we will release the results of the vote by mail ballots processed earlier that afternoon. The polling place results will begin arriving sometime after 8:30 PM. This will be followed by periodic updates throughout the evening. Election Night activities could end as early as 10:30 PM or as late as 2:00 AM. The end of the day is unpredictable, and you are welcome to leave at any time during the evening.

My office will begin mailing vote by mail ballots on May 5, 2008 and will start processing voted ballots 7 business days before Election Day.

If you are interested in observing on or before Election Day activities, please contact Karrie Wheeler at (530) 886-5696. If you are not able to make it to my office on Election Day, be sure to visit our website at www.placer.ca.gov/elections for election results.

I look forward to seeing you. Please contact me at (530) 886-5690 if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Jim McCauley
County Clerk-Recorder-Registrar of Voters
